FALLING IN LOVE WITH JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE

Preacher: Roy Searle

1. Jesus says, “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” What is troubling your heart at present, and what might it mean to trust Jesus within that situation rather than simply trying to escape it?
2. The sermon says that “the way is not first a set of directions; the way is a person.” How does this change the way we approach uncertainty, decisions or seasons when the road ahead is unclear?
3. What would it look like for our truth-telling to be more “Jesus-shaped”—courageous without cruelty, clear without contempt, humble and loving—in our conversations, workplaces and online lives?
4. Where might God be calling our housegroup, and each of us personally, to become a signpost of hope and a living sign of the Father’s welcome this week? Maybe think of this in terms of the Challenge that was set in the sermon:
 - One word I need to hear from Jesus today - perhaps peace, courage, trust, forgiveness, hope.
 - One person who needs encouragement or welcome this week.
 - One step I can take to point someone towards the love of Christ.
